The Devil's Putty and Varnish.

When a man cums to the konklusion that he would like to kill sum boddy at thirty paces, he imagines that he has bin wronged, and sends his best friend a challenge to fite a dewell; tha meet, and an elegant murder is committed; the cracks in this transaktion are puttyed up, and then varnished over, bi being called "an affair of honor." When a man robs a saving bank, or goes tew urope on the last steamer, with the stolen receipts ov a sanitary kommittee in his pocket, a kommittee ov investigation are got together to examine the stait ov affairs, and unanimously report "a diskrepansy in his ackounts." 2 yung men hire a hoss and buggy at a livri stable, and go into the kuntry on Sunda. Tha stop at the fust tavern tha meet, and invest in some ardent speerits. The more tha histe in, the more tha drive, till bi and bi a devilish bridge tips them over into a devilish gutter that sumboddy haz lef in the side ov the road, and tha are all killed, inclooding the hoss and the buggy. This is called a "Fatal acksident." A man and his wife are living in the middle of joy and consolashun, tha are surrounded on awl sides by a yung and interesting familee, their bread is cut thin and buttered on both sides and the edges, but the destroyer enters the family, the wife wants a nu silk gown, the man sez he "be d—d if she dux," and she "be d—d if she don't." One words brings on another tell tha fite, both of them lose awl the hair in their heds, and 2 full sets of false teeth, the thing ends in a divorce, the man runs away tew Australia bi the overland route, the woman marry's a cirkus rider at 40 dollars a month, the children are adopted bi sum sunda school, and are brought up on homopathy. This furnishes a collum and a half in the neuspaper, under the hed of "Disturbance ov the married relation." A youth of 21 summers begins life with 36 thousand dollars. Several hosses belong tew him, there are several fast wimmen that he belongs tew, all the tavern keepers are hiz patrons, faro banks are built for his amusement, consolidated lotterys are chartered on purpose tew make him happee; nothing is left undun tew make him feel good. He wakes up about the 25th of next May without a dollar in his pocket, and a host of warm friends on hiz hands, without any vizible means ov supporting them. He takes an akount of stock, he buys a pint ov rum and 4 yards of bed cord, the one makes him limber waile the other makes him stiff.

The putty and varnish in this kase iz: Driven tew desperashun on account of finanshul pressure." A rale rode trane stands snorting in front ov the depoe, the last bel iz ringin, the kars are full ov souls that belong to different individuals, the konductor is Bourbon, that belong to the devil, the engineer labors under an attack ov Jamaka for the bronketis, the switchman liked a little good old rye, the kars diskount 45 miles a hour, 2 tranes try tew pass each other on the same track, it kant be did suckcessfully; the mangled and ded are kounted bi skores, a searching investigashun takes plase, the community iz satisfied, because it was an "unavoidable katastophre." The devil furnishes putty and varnish, free ov expense, tew hide the frauds and guilt of men.

All of which iz respectfully commited bi

DUCK SHOOTING.—A good story is told of one George W. Shaffer. He had been long out shooting, and was coming home with his gamebag empty, and himself weary, when he stopped at the toll-house for a moment's rest.

"There's a fine lot of ducks back here in the pond," said he to the toll keeper. "What will you let me fire into them for?"

"Can't do it," responded the toll-man. "I dont want to have any of my ducks killed."

George put his gun in the toll-house and returned to take another look at the ducks. When he was gone, the toll man, who was a wag, drew the shot from the barrel, and then replaced the gun.

George returned, and then renewed the question.

"Well, though you are a good shot, I don't believe you could hurt them much. Give me your money, George, and you may fire."

The money was paid, and quite a party, who had gathered around, went back to witness his discomfiture. He raised his gun, fired and killed nine of them.

"The duce!" cried the toll-man. "I took the charge out of your gun"

"Yes, I supposed you would," said George. "I always go double charged."

AN INDEPENDENT PAUPER.—An old fellow in a town in Essex county, Mass., once respectable, who, through looking upon the wine when it was red, and fluids of other colors, was reduced to the condition of a pauper, was allowed occasionally liberty beyond the poor-house walls, which he improved by calling on a dear friend who clandestinely sold the creature. On his last visit he imbibed a glass or two, and received, besides, a couple of glasses in a bottle, fortified with which he sallied forth to fall into the arms of a constable, who had watched him through the window; the result was, the friend was prosecuted and the pauper summoned as a witness. When placed upon the stand he was asked if he knew the prisoner. Certainly, he had known him many years.

"Did you ever go there?"

"Yes; always when he went to town."

"And now," said the magistrate, "did you ever buy any liquor there?"

"Which?" said the old fellow, suddenly hard of hearing.

"Did you ever buy any liquor there?"

"I decline to answer!" said the witness.

"You must answer or be committed for contempt," said the judge, sternly.

"Well," replied the old fellow, after a few moments' pause, "what will be the extent of the penalty?"

"Imprisonment in the Salem jail," responded the judge.

"Indeed! Well, as I think that an improvement on the poor-house, I shan't tell!"

And he didn't; thereby saving his friend.

$10 Reward.

THE ABOVE REWARD WILL BE GIVEN FOR the apprehension of two Colored boys named Fed, and Eldridge, who absconded from me about Jan. 1st. 1867. They are about fifteen years old, and very black, said boys were raised by me and have been regularly bound to me until 21 years of age, by the agent of the "Freedmen's Bureau" Raleigh, N. C.

All persons are forwarned from employing or harboring them, under the penalty of the Law. They were raised in Harnett Co., and may be lurking about that County or Raleigh. Any information of their whereabouts will be thankfully, received and liberally rewarded by the undersigned.

OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

JAMES M. TOWLES,

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,

BY WHICH

Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Bothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhea, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used all, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs.——, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhea for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest, is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhea, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea, of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 7, 1867.

The Proposed Plan of Adjustment.

We published on Tuesday evening last, what may be regarded in good faith by our readers, as a proposition coming from Southern gentlemen alone, deeply interested in the permanent settlement of the serious and damaging complications which exist between the ten Southern States, who on principle, recently rejected the Constitutional amendment proposed by Congress, and the Congress. All of the gentlemen in any wise responsible for the plan, are Southern men, acting upon their own unofficial responsibility, who have been decided in their objections to the Constitutional amendment proposed by Congress.

The plan is the result of their own convictions of duty both to the South and the North, and was not entered into, until they had enjoyed full and free conversations with members of Congress and other gentlemen, representing many Northern States and every phase of political opinion.

It is not true as indicated in some of the Northern papers, that it is a plan of President Johnson; nor is it true that he has telegraphed Southern Legislatures urging its adoption.—Our information authorises us to say, that the President is in no way responsible for the plan. So far as is known, the President still stands upon his own plan, yet it is believed by some of those connected with this plan, that the President would throw no obstacle in its way, if approved by the Southern States and by Congress.

But let us briefly address ourselves to the plan, itself. It has been drawn up with much care, and it bears upon its face, the evidence, that in its formation, no attempt was made to prepare such a plan as would meet, unhesitatingly, the views of the drafters themselves or any party, wholly, North or South. We view it as a compromise platform, demanding the surrender of some principle, some feeling and some prejudice, from all parties, in order to effect union and harmony among brethren and States, who ought never to have been sundered or separated, in feeling or interest. Hence, no attempt has been made to meet the views of extreme men, either North or South. There were differences sufficiently irreconcilable among moderate men of both sections, not to attempt to force harmony between the two extremes. Yet we are bound to say, if the Southern States are States under the Constitution, as we believe they are, the plan proposed, is evidently a compromise on one side, a surrender on the part of the South, to the feelings, sentiments and anxieties of a large portion of our Northern brethren. This we believe, was done to effect the ends of peace and harmony and good will.

The first section declares the Union indissoluble, and that all acts of secession, if enacted, are null and void. The results of the war and perfect indemnity for the future, demand this. Indeed, who can estimate the injury which has arisen from the failure of our fathers to put it in the Constitution at first?

The second section, makes a finality of the Federal debt, as well as of the debt in aid of the late Confederacy. No Southern man looks for anything else or holds a contrary opinion, who has made himself master of the situation.

The third section is taken identically from the so-called Howard amendment. The first and last members of it, are already in the Constitution, in fact, if not in form. The second or middle sentence reads thus: "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States." This member of the section as it stood related to other sections in the Howard amendment, was, we confess, very offensive to us. As explained and construed by the best legal minds in Washington, it is inoffensive.—We are told, that it simply means and is intended to mean, that no State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of any citizen of the United States, i. e. any privilege or immunity secured to citizens of the United States by the Constitution and laws of the same. It has no reference to privileges or immunities guaranteed to persons as citizens of any of the States. This is a point in which the Northern people feel deeply interested. By the agency and activity of persons who are exceedingly hostile to Southern people; and disaffected and unsound persons among us, the false impression seems to be almost indelibly fixed in the Northern mind, that the Southern people, especially the "rebels," are determined not to deal justly and mercifully with the colored race, or with the Union men among us. Never was there a greater injustice done to any people, than this charge.—The drafters of this plan, with one single exception, Gov. Orr, if we mistake not, were among the most uniform, consistent Union men in the South, and each one of them would not hesitate to make oath, that the charge is unfounded. If this view of the third section be correct, it entirely accords with the spirit of our institutions and the Constitution.

The fourth section, relates to representation and suffrage. It apportions representation among the several States according to numbers, but if at any time after its adoption, any State shall on account of race or color, or previous servitude, exclude that class from voting, the entire class shall be excluded, in numbering the population for representation. The principle of the Howard amendment is here retained, but the conditions are such and so guarded, that in view of all the surroundings of the question, and laying aside our cherished feelings and prejudices we can see no violation, of Southern honor, to yield it.

On the question of suffrage, we confess our objections are stronger. The history of the country has forced us to the conviction, that Constitutional liberty is safer under a restricted suffrage, than it would be, if unlimited, until our entire people of all castes and colors, become more fully imbued with the principles of virtue, and general intelligence becomes more diffused. Hence we would prefer that the requisition for suffrage should embrace both the educational and property qualification, in both races. But our space forbids further comment.

Pitt County.

A party of desparadoes, in the lower part of Pitt, overtook the Sheriff a few nights ago at a point known as Haddock's Cross Roads, and compelling him to dismount, took possession of his money and the papers he had about him. We understand that no violence was offered to the person of Mr. Gray, the Sheriff, beyond forcing him to deliver up everything in his possession.

The same band, or another acting in concert with them, then proceeded to Greenville, and entering the clerk's office in the Court House, effected a terrible destruction of the records and legal documents therein. We are not advised as to the amount of damage inflicted, but fear it will prove heavy, and cause much loss and inconvenience to the county.

Occurrences of this kind are calculated to reflect very seriously on a community, and in advance of publication, we record it merely to vindicate the good people of Pitt from the charge of lawlessness, that will doubtless be urged against them.

These bands of highwaymen are composed of those men who deserted the Southern Army during the war, under the influence of those of a better class, who cowardly incited and encouraged opposition to the Confederate government and many of whose teachings since, now lead to these very results. The Raleigh Standard and its supporters are mainly responsible for this state of affairs, which we fear is starmingly on the increase.

We have before urged the State authorities to take some steps in this matter, and as the Legislature is now in session, we deem it a wise and appropriate subject for legislation, and we call on that body to give it their early attention, and most earnest consideration, for it is very plain that unless speedy action is taken, we shall, have neither law nor order in that section of the State.—Wilson Carolinian.

The above discloses a sad state of things, which we have feared for some time, and one which demands the prompt action of the Legislature. We have urged that something be done quickly, to relieve the people from the distressing forebodings which are universally indulged by the debtor class, of irrecoverable ruin, from the general disposition on the part of creditors to obtain judgments at the approaching terms of the Courts. We have private information, we cannot say that it is positively true, that there are secret associations forming in various counties whose motto is, or will be "bread or blood."

There are undoubtedly in the State, a number of persons, who are decided repudiators of all indebtedness, both public and private. Many of these have some influence, and by means of highly colored misrepresentations, mislead a large number of persons whose debts are small, but who would yield to correct teaching. But we have no idea that the bulk of our people sanction repudiation. The mass of the debtor class need and require time; they are not willing that their property shall be sacrificed, as it must be, by forced sales, when money is so scarce;—moreover, they are burdened by the heavy costs which must accrue if they are sued. They ask the Legislature, if we understand the general sentiment, and we think we do, that they shall be protected against ruinous costs and forced sales, thus rendering them totally unable to liquidate their debts. This we hope the Legislature can constitutionally do, and will promptly do. Whatever is done should be done at once. The Courts will soon be in session, and judgments will be taken unless speedily arrested.

Again, the mortifying developments in Pitt county require prompt action. That there has been much lawlessness for some time in the Eastern counties, is manifest. The papers have announced the depredations which have been committed, but the names of the parties engaged in these acts, have not been known or have been kept from the public. The Executive has not been inattentive to these notices.—He has, to our knowledge, written to officers and others calling their attention to these matters. Up to this day, he has received no official information from magistrates or Sheriffs or other officers, giving the slightest clue to the perpetrators of these offences. These offences are committed, but who are the parties? Does any body know? Why have they not had them arrested? Does any officer or magistrate know any of these parties, or can they get knowledge of them? Why have they not done it? Are men whose sworn duty it is, to bring such desperadoes to justice, afraid to execute the law? If so, let them resign and give place to others who will do their duty. Gov. Worth has been ready and anxious to arrest these proceedings, but after making proper inquiry, he can find no one who knows any party implicated, or who proffers to obtain the necessary information. He has been ready to have the civil law enforced, and believes that the Judges and Solicitors have done their duty, still crime is reported, yet no one knows who commits it.

He has been anxious to have the law enforced, and if that fails, he has been ready to resort to any and all means in his power, or in the power of the National government, to put down these desperadoes. But what can either the civil or military arm do, when no one knows who commits these offences, and when the civil officers of the several counties, make no complaint, and lodge no information with the Executive, or other proper officers upon which he or any one else can act? It must be manifest, if the civil officers of the several counties, were on the alert and sufficiently active, some of these desperadoes, their names and haunts, could be discovered, which would lead to their apprehension. Let the Legislature enquire into these matters and act promptly.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

THURSDAY MORNING, Feb. 7.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. Avery, from the Joint Select Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred sundry bills to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein, reported by bill as a substitute for the whole, recommending its passage.

On motion of Mr. Cowles, the rules were suspended, and he proposed to amend by striking out so much of the bill as requires the defendant to make oath. Upon this the yeas and nays were called, and the amendment was adopted by a vote of 36 to 5.

Mr. Cowles moved that the Speaker appoint a committee of three to revise the bill and report as soon as expedient. Agreed to.

The Speaker designated Messrs. Cowles, Leach and Moore, as the committee.

A message was received from the House transmitting a resolution proposing to adjourn sine die on Monday the 18th inst. On motion of Mr. Love, it was laid on the table. Also a bill to repeal an ordinance to alter the time of holding the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in the County of Stanly. On motion of Mr. Marshall, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

A message was received from the House transmitting a resolution authorizing the Governor to pay freights on supplies furnished by benevolent associations from other States; on motion of Mr. Kelly the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings.

CHATHAM RAILROAD.

Bill to declare valid an act of the General Assembly amending the charter of the Chatham railroad company, having been made the special order, was taken up on its second reading, and the amendment offered by Mr. Robbins was agreed to. A discussion of some length ensued. Messrs. Avery Jones, Leach and Paschall urged the passage of the bill, and Messrs. Wilson, Speed, and Berry in opposition. At the close of Mr. Berry remarks he offered an amendment. Mr. Hall favored the bill. He believed it was right and just, and that he should vote for it. On the amendment offered by Mr. Berry, the Ayes and Nays were called and the amendment was lost by a vote 23 to 13. The question recurring on its passage, on motion of Mr. Wilson, the Ayes and Nays were called, and the bill was rejected by a vote of 21 to 19.

Mr. Cowles from the select committee who were appointed to consider a bill to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein reported back the same with various amendments, which were read, and will come up to-morrow as unfinished business.

On motion of Mr. Wilson the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 7., 1867.

The House was called to order at half past 10 o'clock.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. McNair, for the committee on Corporations, reported back, favorably, a bill to incorporate the Duplin Manufacturing Company.—(This bill passed 2nd and 3rd readings under a suspension of the rules.)

Mr. Cowan, for the Committee on Internal Improvements, reported back, unfavorably, a bill to amend the charter of Greenville and French Broad Railroad Company.

Mr. Harper, for the Committee on Finance, reported a resolution in regard to printing the Reports of Railroad and other Companies, recommending its passage.

From the same Committee, unfavorably, the bill to authorize the Public Treasurer to negotiate a loan for the relief of the Treasury and to establish a North Carolina Saving's Bank.

Mr. McKay, as the author of the bill, just reported from the Committee on Finance, stated that he regarded this as the most important measure for the relief of the people that had been or would be before the Legislature. The report of the committee was that of a bare majority, the bill being defeated in Committee by the casting vote of the Chairman, when there was a bare quorum of the Committee present. The report itself is a sufficient argument in favor of the passage of the bill. Of all things it is most desirable to raise the credit of the State, and enhance the value of the State securities. The report of the Committee admits that this bill will have that effect. Then let us have it. Give credit and a currency to our people, enhance the value of our State securities, and our schemes of improvement will be completed. He moved that this bill be made the Special Order for Tuesday next, 11 o'clock, which was agreed to.

Mr. Waugh, for the committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported back unfavorably, a bill to amend the Revised Code in relation to Entries and Grants, and a bill to repeal an act, (passed by this Assembly,) amendatory of the charter of the Washington Toll-Bridge Company.

(Mr. Gorham presented a petition praying the repeal contemplated by this bill. He proceeded to urge the passage of the bill, when the Speaker ruled that this Legislature had no power to repeal a bill it had passed.)

Mr. Waugh, for the same Committee reported back a memorial from the Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Raleigh, and asked to be discharged from its further consideration, and suggesting its reference to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds. Committee discharged and reference made.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

By Mr. Crawford, of Macon, a bill to incorporate the Tennessee River Mining and Manufacturing Company.

By Mr. Houston, a bill in favor of C. A. Boon, late Sheriff of Guilford County.

By Mr. Davidson, a resolution in favor of Mount Pleasant Academy.

By Mr. Guess, a bill for the relief of Executors, Administrators, Guardians and others.

By Mr. McKay, a bill to authorize the County Court of Cumberland to appoint Inspectors of crude Turpentine in the town of Fayetteville.

By Mr. Cowan, a bill to amend the charter of the Cape Fear Steamboat Company. (Passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.)

Mr. Perry, of Carteret, presented a memorial from citizens of Carteret county praying legislation for the protection of established fisheries.

A bill to incorporate the town of Nahunta; a bill to establish a criminal court in the county of Craven, and a resolution in favor of William Gordon, passed their several readings under a suspension of the rules.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The House resumed consideration of the bill to transfer the Land Scrip donated by the United States for an Agricultural College.

Mr. Durham offered a substitue for the bill. [This substitute was entitled a bill to establish an agricultural and mechanical college. It authorized a sale of the Land Scrip by the Public Treasurer; the election of seven trustees by the General Assembly—said trustees to locate the college in the central portion of the State, but not in the vicinity of Chapel Hill, or any incorporate city or town.]

Mr. Long said that the merits of the substitute had already been fully discussed. It was similar to that offered on the second reading of the bill (by Mr. Foard) which, however, held out greater inducements than the one now offered. He hoped the substitute would be rejected, and the original bill passed.

Mr. Dargan had, at first, been in favor of appropriating this wind-fall to the establishment of a new institution, apart from any other college. An examination of the act of Congress had subsequently shown him that this Land Scrip could only be given to an institution under the control of the Legislature, and that only the interest on the money could be used. He wished to know if a new institution were erected, who was to pay for the necessary buildings, and who would pay the Professors? He was forced, from a sense of duty, to vote for the bill and against the substitute.

Mr. Durham addressed the House in support of the substitute. He opposed the transfer of the Land Scrip to the University, although he believed such transfer would be made. The friends of the bill urged the transfer to Chapel Hill, mainly because of the constitutional provision which required the keeping up of the University. The University, he said, had not been managed as it should be—it had lost the confidence of the people, and would not regain it until its management was changed.

Mr. Morehead asked the gentleman from Cleaveland (Mr. Durham) whether he would amend his substitute by adding a proviso, making an annual appropriation to the University of $20,000, until the number of its students should reach 400.

Mr. Durham declined making such amendment.

Mr. Morehead opposed the substitute at some length, setting forth the claims of Chapel Hill, its superior advantages, etc.

Mr. Davis opposed the substitute, defended the University, and suggested, in reply to the charge of mismanagement, that the institution being under the control of the State, investigation as to the management of its affairs was at all times easy.

Messrs. Everett, Durham and Henry addressed the House in support of the substitute.

The substitute was rejected by the casting vote of the Speaker, as follows:

AYES.—Messrs. Ashworth, Autry, Barden, Beasley, Black, Blair, Blythe, Boyd, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Clements, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Foard, Freeman, Gambril, Garrett, Garriss, Godwin, Harding, Henry, Hinnant, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Jenkins, of Gaston, Jones, Jordan, Kelsey, Logan, Lyon, Lutterloh, May, Moore, of Chatham, Morton, Neal, Perry, of Wake, Rogers, Russ, Scoggin, Sudderth, Teague, Trull, Vestal, Walker, Whitfield, Wilson, of Forsyth, Williams, of Harnett, Williams of Yancey, Womble, York.—55.

NAYS.—Messrs. Speaker, Allen, Baker, Bowe, Bradsher, Chadwick, Clark, Cowan, Collins, Dargan, Davis, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Harper, Henderson, Hodnett, Houston, Hutchison, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Craven, Lee, Long, Lowe, Martin, McArthur, McClammy, McGougan, McKay, McNair, McRae, Moore, of Hertford, Morehead, Murrill, Patton, Peebles, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Richardson, Rosebro, Rountree, Scott, Shelton, Simpson, Smith, of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stevenson, Stone, Turnbull, Umstead, Waugh, Westmoreland, Williams, of Pitt, Woodard.—55.

Mr. Russ, opposed the bill and moved that it lie on the table.

This motion did not prevail, yeas 52, nays 54.

Mr. Logan offered a substitute for the bill, proposing the election of seven Trustees by the General Assembly to take charge of the Land Scrip, to carry out the provisions of the act donating the same, and report their proceedings to the next Legislature.

Mr. Cowan urged again the necessity of action by the present General Assembly, stating that the act of donation required, within five years, the acceptance of the Scrip and its appropriation to the establishment of an Agricultural College under the control of the State. The five years would expire in June next, dating from the passage of the act. He adverted to the alleged opinion of Judge Ruffin that the five years should be reckoned from the acceptance of the donation, but said with due deference to so high an authority that many gentlemen of eminent legal ability entertained a different opinion.

Pending further discussion, a message was received from the Governor transmitting a communication from the Public Treasurer. Sent to the Senate.

On motion of Mr. Everett the House then adjourned.

From the Jackson (Mississippi) Clarion, Jan. 29.

Exemption Law Constitutional.

Our High Court of Errors and Appeals rendered a decision yesterday, declaring as constitutional the exemption law passed over the Governor's veto in November, 1865. This law exempts from seizure and sale, among other items, two hundred and forty acres of land, including the dwelling and other buildings thereon; the horses, mules and implements necessary to carry on a farm of that extent; and where the party resides in a city or town, four thousand dollars worth of real and personal property, comprising the proper homestead and other buildings connected therewith, household and kitchen furniture, provisions for the family and forage for the stock for one year.

The following articles are also exempt: the necessary tools of a mechanic, and five hundred dollars worth of material used in carrying on his business; implements of a laborer usual in his employment; the books of a student required for the completion of his education; the wearing apparel of every person, and the library of all persons; saddles and bridles sufficient for the neccessary use of the family; also the instruments of surgeons and dentists, used in their profession; the arms and accoutrements of every white person, and all books and apparatus in schools and colleges. The decision of the court will shortly appear in full in our columns.

TO TEST GOLD OR SILVER.—Metals purporting to be gold or silver may be easily tested by moistening the metal and rubbing lunar caustic on the wet part. If the metal is pure, the mark will be faint, but if it is not pure, the mark will be darker in proportion as the alloy is greater, until, in the case of counterfeit or base metals, the marks will be quite black.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Constitutional Amendment—Southern Proposition to be Made—Probable Rejection by the Radicals—Ultra Measures to be Enacted—The Tenure of Office Bill—Its Object—President Johnson on Trial.

[Special Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, February 3.—A few days ago I referred to the fact that many truly representative men of the South were on a visit to the metropolis, for the purpose of canvassing the possibility of maturing some plan by which the present sectional difficulties might be adjusted in a manner promising the return of harmony and fraternal relations to the whole country. I now learn that this matter has since assumed a definite shape, so far that I am authorized to say, that a proposition will be shortly made in form, by the Legislature of North Carolina and submitted to Congress, offering as a finality the adoption of the Constitutional Amendment, with the substitution for the second and third sections provisions guaranteeing impartial suffrage and representation according to the voting population.

I need not add that the proposition, in my judgment, will be rejected by the Radicals, the purpose of the leaders of that party being to protract indefinitely any settlement. The signs of the times unmistakably point to far more stringent measures than any yet proposed, and the means to be employed are bolder and indefinitely more reckless than the public seem willing to believe. Many members of Congress who have had, up to within the past week, hopes of a final adjustment upon some satisfactory basis, now undisguisedly express themselves without hope, and admit that their calculations, based upon the ultimate resistance of that class of Republicans whose votes have on some occasions been cast against ultra measures, have turned out to be utterly fallacious. No better proof of this could be furnished than the votes in the House upon an amendment to the "tenure of office" bill yesterday. It prohibits the President from removing a Cabinet officer without the consent of the Senate. It was at first substantially defeated, but the party lash was applied, and upon a reconsideration it was adopted, and the bill, with it incorporated as a provision, passed by a strict party vote. It will go to the Senate, be feebly opposed by the "more moderate Republicans," who will finally yield, and by the time it comes back with the President's objections the party will have become a unit, and the bill become a law by the vote of two-thirds of both Houses.

Under existing circumstances, this bill is of vital consequences. No man doubts that the purpose of making the Cabinet independent is to tie the hands of the President in view of his ejection from the position he occupies. In truth, the whole legislation of this Congress has been but a piece of net-work with which to environ the Executive, preparatory to the utter demolition of his authority, and placing in his stead a "Lord Protector" already selected. The restraints of the Constitution are utterly contemned even by such pretended Conservatives as Raymond, and that instrument held to have been, in fact, abolished by the results of the war. He who imagines, therefore, that the fundamental law presents the slightest barrier to the destructive course marked out by the revolutionists, indulges in a delusion which is directly at variance with every word and every act of the dominant party.

It is a fact which cannot be too soon fully understood by the people and duly pondered upon, that Andrew Johnson is at this moment upon his trial; that the witnesses, such as Detective Baker, are upon the stand; that his case has been prejudged, and that he is liable at any moment to be dragged to the bar of the House and deposed.

I understand that General Grant has indefinitely postponed his visit to Europe. He was to have left in April. This is a very significant fact.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 200 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF

Moisture	5.70
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.30
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.30
Sulphate of Lime	14.20
Salts	3
Insoluble	2.50
	99.50

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

SELLING OUT AT COST.

HUMBUG----HUMBUG.

ASK THEM IF THEY WILL SELL WAMSUTTA prints at 12½ c per yd.

Arnold's and Freeman's at 13½; Phillip Allen, Sprague's Dunnell's and American prints at 15 c. per yd., good styles, good quality and good colours, fine round thread and well compacted.

Ask the gentlemen if they will sell heavy 4-4 Brown Domestic at 18 c. per yd?

Ask them if they will sell New York Mills 4-4 Bleached Domestics at 35 c. per yd.

Ask the gentlemen if they will sell Wamsutta and Lonsdale 4-4 Bleached Domestics at 28 c.

Ask them if they will sell powdered, and crushed sugar at 14 c. per lb.

Ask them if they will sell Rio Coffee at 23½ c. per lb, a good article, not dead grains, NOT ROCKS, BUT COFFEE.

If they will sell them at the above prices they are cheap, if they will not, leave immediately.

A FEW WORDS TO MY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

I advertised in the early part of the season that I would sell goods as cheap, as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, Cost Houses not excepted—as cheap as he who had paid for his goods, or ever intended to pay for them. And I here take the privilege to say, that I think my customers will bear me out when I say, I have done so in almost every instance.

I told the people to "come to Creech's," to buy their goods—they have come, and they are still coming—and I think they will pardon me when I say they have shown their good judgment.

I now tell them to "come to Creech's" to buy their goods.

I don't advertise my goods at New York Cost.—I intend to represent my goods to you in a fair and equitable way, and sell them fully as cheap as any so-called Cost House. And I here say to the so-called cost gentlemen, if they paid what they charge their customers for goods, I advise them to go back to the License man and surrender their license. Go back to your Land-lords and ask them to take back your houses,—and proclaim to the world that you have missed your calling, and are not fit for merchants.

I compromised my debts that I owed North before the war, by paying them at one hundred cents in the dollar.

Let them start their opposition—let them all talk. But "come to Creech's," to buy your goods. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, ready and willing at all times to serve you right.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Feb. 7, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Our usual notice of new advertisements was crowded out on yesterday.

Thomas Branch, Esq., well known in this city for his ability and promptness as a business man, has in connection with his sons, a house in Richmond, Petersburg and Augusta, Ga., where the business of Bankers and Commission Merchants is carried on largely. Our readers dealing in either of those cities, will find it to their advantage to call on them. See advertisement.

Our friend J. B. Hunter, late of Granville county, it will be seen, has associated with him in the Commission business at Portsmouth, Va., Mr. E. H. Lassiter, of Northampton county, Va.

Messrs. Worth & Daniel, of Wilmington, are extensive dealers in Groceries, and largely interested in the shipping and commission business. See their card.

Jno. E. Boyd, Esq., of Macon Depot, offers $40 reward for the recovery of a stolen horse.

Messrs. Pulliam, Jones & Co., are in receipt of new articles in their line.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, can furnish tools and material for almost all kinds of mechanics, &c.

Messrs. Worth & Daniel, Wilmington, offer a fresh cargo of Cuba molasses, new crop. Orders are solicited.

Address box No. 1200 city Postoffice in reference to Piano &c. See advertisement.

Goldsboro' Female College opens Spring Session on the 18th of the present month. This College has a good reputation and an excellent Faculty. See advertisement.

Messrs. R. H. Maury & Co., Bankers and Brokers, Richmond, Va., is a house of excellent reputation, and will be found to be reliable. See Card.

Great Land Sale, by A. Burgin, Administrator. Sale to be held in McDowell, Burke, and Yancey Counties, as stated in advertisement. It is the large estate of the late Col. Carson.

Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., offer a large lot of goods to house-keepers.

Messrs. Branson & Farrar offer new books at their Store.

THE LECTURE.—Col. Farrar, of Virginia, has arrived, and will lecture in the Commons Hall to-night, the House having granted him the use of the Hall on yesterday. Col. Farrar has lectured with great success and much to the delight of large audiences, in the cities of Virginia and Maryland. His lecture to-night, is characterized by the papers where he has lectured, as full of interest, ability and humor.—The subject will be "Johnny Reb, the Confederate." We bespeak for him a full house. He comes fully endorsed as a gentleman and true man.

HOTEL SALE.—There was no sale on yesterday of the Exchange Hotel, of this city, or of the Macon Hotel, at Morehead City. The proprietor made the offer of his property in good faith, but there were no bidders present, nor were there any by-bidders. After the auctioneer had called for bids for some time, R. G. Lewis, Esq., with no view of buying, but simply to start the property, made a bid of $10,000. The property was knocked off to him, but he relinquished the bid and the property to the proprietor. The excessive scarcity of money in the country and the unsettled state of affairs, point out very clearly the impolicy of attempting to sell property for its true value.

MARRIAGE.—In the populous city of Wilmington and county of New Hanover, the Wilmington Journal reports only 37 marriage licenses were issued during the last month. Of these 23 were whites and 14 blacks; and this the Journal thinks is doing well. It strikes us as rather a slow way of proving that, "it is not good for man to be alone."

ROBBERY.—Our friend Mr. Emmett Cuthbert, of Petersburg, late of Newbern, had his residence entered on Monday night last, by robbers, who stole a number of articles of clothing nearly new.

WELDON.—At the charter election in Weldon, on Monday last, Messrs. B. W. Spillman, E. M. Hicks, J. T. Gooch, J. L. Bass and John Farrell, were elected Commissioners.

THE HOTEL QUESTION.—The Wilmington Journal urges strongly the necessity of a first class Hotel in that city. We judge, from what we have heard, it must be needed. A little of the usual energy and liberality, manifested by that enterprising people, would soon erect one.

From the New York Evening Post, (Rep.)

The tariff bill has gone to the House. It is, as we have shown by exact figures, one of the most oppressive and unequal revenue bills ever devised. It lays exceptionally heavy burdens upon the articles consumed by the poor and the workingmen, and their wives and children, and favors the rich in every way. We once more warn members of the House of Representatives not to vote for this bill—unless they are sure that it will be defeated. If it becomes a law and goes into operation, it will, as it ought to, kill politically every man who votes for it.

The Lynchburg Virginian says that Mr. Richard Pollard, of that city, will receive about the 1st of March a cargo of merchandize imported by him direct from China, of which country he was a resident for several years. The whole or a part of the articles will be brought to Lynchburg for sale, consisting of green and black teas, floor matting, preserved ginger, chowchow, &c. These we suppose are the first direct importation from China to Virginia.

Twenty-five years ago John Minor Botts an unsuccessful effort in Congress to impeach John Tyler, President of the United States. He charged him with "usurpation," high crimes and misdemeanors." Upon these charges the motion of Mr. Botts for a special committee of inquiry, after a lively debate, was finally rejected—yeas 88, nays 187.

In the Senate, four Executive communications was received and laid on the table.

Mr. Sumner presented petitions from citizens of South Carolina and Arkansas, asking the establishment of loyal governments. Referred.

In the House, a communication from the Secretary of State was received, stating that he had been authoritatively notified of the adoption of the Constitutional amendment by five States.

The civil service bill, providing for three Commissioners to examine candidates for office, was tabled by 71 to 67.

Mr. Stevens, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill for the more efficient government of the insurrectionary States. The preamble reiterates the old story of the nullity of the present governments, and the necessity of new ones for the protection of the rights of loyalists. The bill divides the States into military districts, as follows: Virginia, first, North and South Carolina, second, Georgia, Alabama and Florida, third, Mississippi and Arkansas, fourth, Louisiana and Texas, fifth.

An officer not under the rank of Brigadier General, appointed from the general army shall command each district. The district commander when in his judgment it is necessary shall organize military commissions. United States courts may issue writs of habeas corpus on certain endorsements of a commissioned officer. Sentences affecting life and liberty to be approved by the commander of the district. Indications are that Mr. Stevens will press the bill to a vote to-morrow.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE: SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

TRADE MARK

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $25,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia

MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON,

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and Instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field.

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
